

K-LOVE radio is very important for our family listening and serves the community by giving a positive message of hope and non-profit functions taking place in our area. Any other programming would be devastating to our family as we depend on this station all day long. Good Christian music teaches my children valuable principles and fills our home with hope that other stations do not do. We would be devastated without this station, please do not take it off the air.